

MONASTIRAKI

PIRAEUS DISTRICT OF « PALIA KOKKINIA » 1922

Square one

Isaac, the great-grandfather (first generation) started the first Kebab Parlor in Greece.
Its name was "Egyptiakón". He had brought the secret Kebab recipe from Asia Minor.

When experience creates heirs

ATHENS DISTRICT OF « MONASTIRAKI » 1960

The time of success

Savvas, the grandfather (second generation) undertook to carry on the business with the delicious Kebab.
He presented it to the Athenians along with other recipes from Asia Minor.

ATHENS DISTRICT OF « MONASTIRAKI » 1970

The time for expansion Anéstis Savvas' son (third generation)
along with two of his brothers expanded the "Savvas" family business by creating three Kebab parlors in Monastiraki.

A close-up photograph of several golden-brown, flaky pastries (Pastourmali) stacked on a white plate. The pastries are filled with a mixture of melted cheese, red tomatoes, and Armenian pastourma. In the background, there are wooden bowls containing spices and a mortar and pestle, suggesting a traditional kitchen setting. A semi-transparent dark brown box with white text is overlaid on the upper part of the image.
